ADAMS had a negro clerk in his office and turned him off "BECAUSE HE COULD HIRE A WHITE MAN CHEAPER?" His preference is for the negro clerk, as was evidenced when he employed one and kept him in his office at a high salary. When he decided to cut wages, he hired a white man.

Every man to his taste. The white men of Raleigh and Wake will repudiate ADAMS, UPCHURCH, PURNELL and ROGERS, and every other nominee of the negro convention.

THE man who votes for UPCHURCH and ROGERS, or any other Radical, is a Radical, and ought to be so regarded. Let him go to his crowd. Every decent man ought to be pig or pup. Democrats will vote for the Democratic nominees, and Radicals will vote for Radical nominees. By their fruits ye shall know them.

UPCHURCH will get the Radical vote. Every Democrat (so called) who votes for him will do so for pay or other emolument, except about twenty-five. Whenever a Democrat says he will vote for UPCHURCH ask him: "How much did he pay you?"

A BLAZE AND POW-WOW.

A Boss Radical Abuses The Chronicle Roundly—The "Hit Dog Hotters."

Last night some Radicals bought a tar barrel, sawed it into, put half on each side of the court house and set them afire. A negro band stood in front of the building, and the band and the blaze soon drew a crowd of negroes around the building. Nobody seemed to know what the matter was or what the racket was about, but after a time it was circulated that Jim Boyd, of Greensboro, would "speak to the people"—meaning of course to the negroes.

The band went into the building and a small but very dark completed crowd followed it in an expectant manner. But Jim Boyd didn't show up. F. M. Sorrell read a telegram from him stating that he was too sick to come, and then Mr. Sorrell announced that Mr. J. O. L. Harris had consented to fill Boyd's place.

Harris appeared before the crowd and harangued them for some time.

He made a very desperate effort to make the new registration under the new election law appear as a piece of rascality, but somehow his crowd couldn't really take that proposition in.

Harris made a cry of fraud in elections, and said that was the reason that the Republicans wanted to pass the force bill. But Harris very prudently omitted to state when and where those "frauds" were practiced by the Democrats. If he had undertaken this, he would have been under the undertaking.

Harris said he wanted the time to come when the politics of a man could not be told by the color of his skin. (This shows that the Radical bosses themselves know that white men are solid for a white man's government.)

Harris paid his respects to the CHRONICLE, in vigorous terms. He said that paper was waging a bitter warfare on the Republican party, and he accused that paper of saying all sorts of things about men who were going to vote for Republicans.

In fact he roundly abused the CHRONICLE and right on the heels of his abuse he said his information was that the "CHRONICLE's course had made voters for the Radical party."

At this the negroes broke into vigorous applause and yells. But the CHRONICLE man who happened to be in the hall knew that somebody was hollering because somebody had been hit. The CHRONICLE's course has made many "rads" mighty sick and has opened the eyes of many sleepy Democrats and will make them vote and work for votes in the coming campaign to put white men, whom white men can support, in the offices of government and keep them there.

And the CHRONICLE will not change its course during the campaign. It will keep hitting from the shoulder, and it will keep striking till all the whole head of the Radical party is knocked into smithereens. The CHRONICLE is fighting Radicalism and it does not believe in a half hearted fight.

Harris made one remark to which the CHRONICLE wishes to say: That the course of the paper is just what every man on it, from the Editor in chief down to the devil, helps to carry on.

Yes, every man connected with the paper is a "straight voting Democrat," and votes for white men and white men only; and every man stands ready at all times to give a blow at black, high-tariff, trust and monopolistic Radicalism.

CHRONICLE men will not vote for a white man nominated by a negro convention any sooner than they will vote for a negro. Harris spoke for some time, during which the CHRONICLE regrets to say he appealed strongly to the prejudices of the large majority of his negro hearers. He told the truth, but he didn't tell the whole truth every time.

Whenever the CHRONICLE shall be praised and commended by Radicals, it will be unworthy of Democratic support.

The colored fair will make the bustle and noise and dust for this week. The CHRONICLE bets they will have one great big time.

Some retail houses in the city did as much as four thousand dollars worth of business each in one day last week. How is that for hustling?

Last week showed that floral hall at the fair grounds, is no longer the building necessary to meet the demands of the annual fair.

Messrs. Smith and Woolcott, trustees for W. G. Separk, have an announcement in this issue which is important to merchants.

Sheriff Grant, of Wayne county, who was here this week reported that the doors of the county jail were open—not a prisoner being in there.

Is every white man telling every other white man to register? The registration is new, and if there be no registering there will be no voting.

The work recently done on Hillsboro street made that a splendid thoroughfare to the fair grounds. Just such work is needed all over the township and county.

Next comes the colored fair, then the circus, then the chrysanthemum show, then the legislature with any amount of dances and hops and theatrical attractions interspersed between.

Cotton made things very lively on the streets yesterday. Every day is one of booming, rushing business now. Everybody, except the newspaper men who tell all about these things, is getting rich.

The handsome exhibits of canned goods made at the fair by the Alamance Canning Company and the High Point Packing Company, were bought by Messrs. W. C. and A. B. Stronach, and will be on sale next week at their store.

Good, as far as it goes. It comes from authentic source that the plans for the new depot have been so revised as to free them from all objectionable obstacles, and that bids for construction will again be asked for and received till November 1st. Will this be one more "Y" to the already long string.

The fine "Pilgrim Brand" tomatoes, peas &c., donated by Messrs Sharp & Perkins, of New York, through Mr. D. T. Johnson, who had them on exhibition at the fair has been sold to Rev. Bennett Smedes, Principal of St. Mary's school. The proceeds go for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home.

The charter of the Citizens' National Bank will expire on the 30th of November. They have made application for a renewal of their charter, and yesterday Col. S. McD. Tate, Bank Examiner, made an examination of the bank. He found the affairs of the bank in first class shape, and will recommend a renewal of the charter. The Citizens' Bank is a popular and solid institution and an honor to Raleigh.

Mr. A. Roscower, editor of the Goldsboro Herald, is in the city. He says Wayne will go Democratic. He tells us that Mr. John R. Smith, Republican postmaster at Goldsboro, will vote the straight Democratic county ticket in Wayne as, in the language of P. M. Smith, "the Republican ticket is enough to disgust any decent Republican." He, Mr. Roscower, also says that W. O. B. Robinson, ex-United States District Attorney, stated in the convention that the Republicans would not support the ticket, but nominate another. Mr. Robinson withdrew from the convention.

A Multitudinous House Breaker.

Frank Busbee, colored, is in Wake county jail. His house-breaking record got that place for him. He has been in the habit of breaking into houses lately, and the authorities decided to let him try his hand at breaking out of one—if he wanted to.

Busbee was seen a short time since wearing some clothing which was recognized by J. J. Dunn as his own property. He had Busbee arrested, and it has now transpired that the negro broke into Mr. Dunn's house and got that property. Further examination has shown that Busbee has also broken into the houses of Monroe Smith and James Hooper—and all the breaking was done in four days' time.

A search warrant gave access to Busbee's effects, and there were many pairs of shoes, a lot of clothing, a number of watches and various other articles which he chanced to find during his burglarious operations. The property is being restored to those to whom it belongs.

SWINDELL.

The Victorious "Kranich & Bach."

Again this year at the N. C. State Fair, has the "Kranich & Bach" piano, for which Raleigh's Music House has the State agency, proved to be without a superior. Friday, although the pianos of this celebrated make were only on exhibition, and not entered in competition, yet it received an award never before given to a piano at the N. C. State Fair.

The judges, Dr. Aug. Kursteiner and Mr. V. C. Royster, gave a special award to the "Kranich & Bach" on account of its superiority over all other pianos which were in competition. The judges say in their award that it is the best piano exhibited, including eleven different makes, some of which are the most noted and old established manufacturers in the country. For twenty-five years the "Kranich & Bach" has been tested the world over, and to-day is not surpassed by any make. While other manufacturers have resorted to numerous and expensive ways of advertising and selling, the great and progressive house of "Kranich & Bach" are putting their money in making pianos, and not advertising them, and are easily selling them on their merits alone.

The "Kranich & Bach" piano has more improvements than any other piano made, and this official declaration goes to prove that Mr. Stone knows what a good piano is, and his judgement has been endorsed by such high authority as the two above named gentlemen.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, October 18.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-night say: "The Liverpool market was 1 point lower on futures this morning. Spot sales 5,000 bales. The attitude of the foreign markets was not construed as presenting any obstacle to a further decline here, and prices have been allowed to gradually lose 5 to 6 points as compared with last evening's close. There are but few features of fresh interest to note. Receipts are about 42,000 bales, as against 53,000 bales last year, and a comparatively light movement is anticipated next week in consequence of the bad weather recently prevailing."

The stock in warehouses in this city is 21,000 bales, against 13,000 bales last year.
